

Generation 4

Johann Glawe (Pronounced Gluven) and Caroline Wilhelmine Marie Arndt.

John was born Dec. 10, 1840 in HelmsHagen, Vorpommern-Greifswald, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, Prussia. His parents were Carl Christoph Theodor GLAWE Birth SAY 1810 • Müssow, HelmsHagen, Vorpommern-Greifswald, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, Pommerania

And Christine Marie Friedericke Mühns MUNS Birth 1809 • Reinberg, Brandshagen Parish, Kreis Grimmen, Swedish Pomerania

Caroline was born Oct. 6, 1845 in Müssow, Prussia.
Her parents were Fred Johann Friedrich ARNDT and Maria EGGERT of Müssow, Prussia.

Reinberg is about 20 miles north of HelmsHagen. There are 3 towns named HelmsHagen in this small area. The 3rd one is to the east a few miles. Maybe I will find out how they met being born so far apart. The distance between Müssow and Reinberg is over 40 miles.

28 Nov. 2016 Today I was in Greifswald and looked into the church books of parish Weitenhagen (HelmsHagen). There I found the birth record of your John Johann Friedrich Joachim GLAWE, born on 10 Dec. 1840 in HelmsHagen. Best regards, Martin Sohn

I hope to be able to add more information for Caroline. . Ramona Jones Walker had done some genealogy work in the 1970's and she said Caroline's parents were William Arndt and Minnie Heiden. I wonder if William was Caroline's brother rather than her father. Everyone had 4 first names and used them interchangeably. It's very difficult to be sure it's the same person each time.
Their marriage record is next.

TEUTONIA / REGINA / PIEMONTESE / CITTA DI SAVONA / MENTANA 1856

was a 2,693 gross ton ship, built by Caird & Co, Greenock in 1856 for the Hamburg - Brazil Line. Her details were - length 282.1ft x beam 39.4ft, clipper stem, one funnel, three masts (rigged for sail), iron construction, single screw and a speed of 10 knots. There was accommodation for 50-1st, 135-2nd and 310-3rd class passengers. Launched on 4th Aug. 1856, she left Hamburg on 20th Dec. 1856 on her maiden voyage to Southampton, Lisbon, Pernambuco, Bahia and Rio de Janeiro. She started her last voyage on this service on 20th Oct. 1857 and was then sold to Hamburg g America Line. Her first voyage for these owners started 15th Jul. 1859 when she sailed from Hamburg for Southampton and New York. In Nov. 1867 she started winter sailings between Hamburg and New Orleans. Her last Hamburg - Havre - New York voyage started 31st May 1870 and she subsequently ran between Hamburg and the West Indies. Fitted with compound engines in 1872, she was sold to Domini on Line of Liverpool in 1877. Commenced Liverpool - New Orleans sailings on 13th Mar. 1877 and Liverpool - Quebec - Montreal voyages on 22nd Aug. 1878. Sold to other British owners in 1883, she was resold in 1884 to Francesco Costa of Italy and renamed REGINA. In 1889 she was renamed PIEMONTESE and in 1890 became CITTA DI SAVONA. Sold to Schiaffino in 1891 and named MENTANA, she was finally scrapped in Italy in 1894. [North Atlantic Seaway by N.R.P. Bonsor, vol. 1, p. 388-9] [South Atlantic Seaway by N.R.P. DAVIS JUNCTION VICTIM

Farmer Glawe Struck by Lightning

Bad Agents

Davis Junction, Ill. Nov. 9 -(Special.) ~ Two smooth lightning rod agents swindled John Glawe out of over $200 last week. Mr. Glawe intends to thoroughly air these frauds in court but there is little hope of his getting his money back again. They tried to work their game on Marshall Cogswell but he was too shrewd.

It is but a few weeks since that a Seward farmer was caught in the same way. The matter was made public but Mr. Glawe failed to take warning.

MONROE CENTER

MONROE CENTER, June 6--Death came to one of our homes about 5 o'clock this morning, summoning Mrs. Caroline Arndt Glawe, wife of John Glawe. The deceased was born in Germany in the year 1846. She and her husband came to America forty-seven years ago, and settled near Lindenwood. They have resided in this community since, but their residence has been in this village for six years. Mr. and Mrs. Glawe celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in the fall of 1915. Eleven children were born into their home, three of whom have passed away. The following eight children are living: Frank A. and William of Monroe Center, Carl of Kirkland, Mrs. Minnie Lutzow of Monroe, Mrs. Jennie Krietzberg of Stillman Valley, Mrs. Annie Hagerman of Holcomb, Mrs. Edith Alcock of Lindenwood and Mrs. Mary Bahls of Emmetberg, Ia. All the children are expected to attend the funeral except Mrs. Bahls, who was with her mother about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Glawe was a member of the German Lutheran church. The funeral will be held from the late home at 10'clock tomorrow afternoon and at the Methodist church at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. W. J. Schuerman will officiate. Interment will be in the village cemetery.

Mrs. John Glawe passed away early Wednesday morning after several months' illness with tuberculosis at the age of 71 years. Mrs. Glawe was a native of Germany, and with her husband came to this country in 1870, settling near Lindenwood, later living in Monroe and Scott townships. The past six years they have lived in this village. Funeral services were held Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at the M. E. church. Rev. Schuerman officiating. Interment was in the village cemetery. Besides her aged husband Mrs. Glawe is survived by eight children. Frank, and Will. of Monroe, Carl, of Kirkland. Mrs. Mary Bahl, of Emmitzburg, Iowa. Mrs. Jennie Krutzbarg, of Stillman Valley. Mrs. Minnie Lutzow, of Monroe. Mrs. Anna Hageman, of Holcomb. Edith Alcock, of Lindenwood. Three children have predeceased the mother, all being afflicted with the same disease. John, of Kirkland. Mrs. Gusta Maars, of Rockford and Mrs. Martha Knott, of Davis Junction.

1917 October 20 --Kirkland--

Last Monday morning Carl Glawe's team of three horses attached to a corn harvester ran away on the Asa Byers farm and Carl was dragged several hundred yards before the team was stopped. He was badly bruised and cut, but fortunately, no bones were broken. He was brought to town and received medical aid and no doubt he will soon be in working condition again. -True Republican 1918 January 25 Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins have purchased the John Glawe residence in the village; consideration $2,500. Walter Lindsay and family will occupy it for the present.

1918 Thursday, February 7 John Glawe, widower, to Augusta L. Jenkins, Lot 1, block 9, S.D. Tyler's Add to the Village of Monroe, $2,500

1918 12 February Minnie Lutzow died at Monroe Center. She was 50 years old.

Mary Glawe 1866-1937 Charles Bahls 1859-1942

Mrs. Charles Bahls

The Democrat has been furnished by Rev. Walter Wagner of the Emmetsburg St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran church with the following obituary of the late Mrs. Charles Bahls, mention of whose death last Wednesday at Iowa City was published in the last issue of this newspaper. Services were held Sunday afternoon in the Foy Funeral Home in Emmetsburg. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Bahls, nee Mary Glawe, was born in Germany on January 5, 1866. She was 71 years and 8 months of age at the time of her passing. Her parents came to America when she was a small child. The family settled in Illinois. The deceased was reared in that community. In May, 1882, Mary was united in marriage to C. C. Bahls. In 1892 the couple moved to Palo Alto county where they resided for nearly 27 years. They then moved to Minnesota where they remained for about ten years. Finally they returned to our county where they have since resided. Several months ago Mr. and Mrs. Bahls moved to Emmetsburg and purchased a home on West Seventeenth Street.

Thirteen children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Bahls, one son dying in infancy. Those who survive her, besides her faithful husband, are four sons: William of Spencer, Robert of Austin, Minn.; Edward and Harold Bahls of London, Minn.; and eight daughters: Mrs. Herman Wolff of Webb, Mrs. Charles McDonald of Sioux Falls, Mrs. L. B. Walker of Hampton, Mrs. R. H. Nye of Sheridan, Wyo.; Mrs. C. C. Christensen of Newton; Miss Clara Bahls at home; Mrs. W. J. Peterson of Frankfort, S. D., and Mrs. Vance Gile of Ruthven. Several brothers and sisters, who live in Illinois and California, survive. There are also 43 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

Those who came to attend the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Odean Klatt, Mrs. Melvin Bjerk, all of Sioux Falls; Mrs. W. J. Peterson, Redfield, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Walker and Fannie Herbert and Edward, all of Hampton; Mrs. C. C. Christensen and daughter Helen of Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bahls and son of Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bahls and daughter and Edward Bahls of London, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bahls and Mrs. Waltha Johnson of Spencer; Mrs. Carrie Blankenburg, Mrs. Alice Blankenburg and daughter of Chariton; Mrs. Christine Kreitzburg of Stillman Valley, Ill.; Will, Frank and Elmer Glawe of Kirkland, Ill.

Mrs. Charles Bahls Dead at Iowa City

As the Democrat goes to press we learn that Mrs. Charles Bahls, 72, well known Emmetsburg resident, died in a hospital at Iowa City yesterday afternoon. Death was the result of a severe case of asthma and dropsy. Mrs. Bahl had been ill since December 3. She was taken to Iowa City last Friday to undergo treatment. She is survived by her husband, 80 years of age and a family of sons and daughters. The Democrat goes to press too early to give further particulars. They will be published in next week's issue of this newspaper.

Charles C. Bahls Taken by Death

Charles C. Bahls, long-time resident of Emmetsburg, died at his home in third ward here on Wednesday. The date of the funeral, which will be held in the Foy Funeral home, is undecided. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

MRS. LUTZOW FUNERAL AT MONROE CENTER

(Special to The Morning Star.)

MONROE CENTER, Feb. 25.—The funeral services of Mrs. Carl H. Lutzow were held in the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lutzow was born in Germany in 1868, and when two years of age came to America with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glawe, settling in the vicinity of Lindenwood. She united with the German Lutheran church here. In 1888 she was married to Carl H. Lutzow. To them four children were born. One, a girl, died in infancy. There are left her husband, two sons, Lewis and Arthur, and one daughter, Laura; her aged father, John Glawe; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Bahls, Mrs. Christina Krietzburg, Mrs. Edith Alcock and Mrs. Anna Hogaman; three brothers, Frank and Will of Monroe Center, and Carl of Kirkland.

Interment took place at the local cemetery. Rev. W. J. Schuerman of the local Methodist Episcopal church officiated.

Carl Lutzow and Minnie Glawe, of Monroe Center, procured a marriage license and were married by Judge Bailey. The Judge was occupied on the bench at the time, but gallantly stopped the wheels of justice, came down of the bench and performed the ceremony, thinking, no doubt, that marriages were of vastly more importance than law suits, and withal, more entertaining.

Daily Gazette Rockford Illinois Mar 14 1888

Mrs. Carl Lutzow died at her home east of Monroe Center Monday evening after a short illness of diabetes. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Thursday at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Lutzow is survived by the husband and daughter, both of whom are in poor health; two sons, Lewis and Arthur, the aged father, John Glawe; three brothers, Frank and Will of Monroe Center, and Carl of Kirkland, and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Ball of Emmetsburg, Iowa, Mrs. Edith Alcock, of Lindenwood, and Mrs. Anna Hagaban, of Holcomb. The mother, one brother, John Glawe, Jr., and two sisters, Mrs. Augusta Maas, and Mrs. Martha Knott, have preceded her.

Carl Lutzow Dies Friday Afternoon

(Special to The Morning Star.)

MONROE CENTER, April 27. — Carl Lutzow, 63 years old, resident of this section since 1872, died this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Laura Clucas, near Kirkland. He had been in declining health for several years and an attack of pneumonia suffered nine days ago hastened his demise.

His wife died 10 years ago. He is survived by three children, Mrs. Laura Clucas, Kirkland, Arthur Lutzow, Monroe Center, and Louis Lutzow, Holcomb, seven grandchildren, and three brothers, Frank, William and Walter Lutzow, all of Rockford.

The Modern Woodmen of America will have charge of the funeral services, which will be held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Clucas residence and at 2 o'clock at Monroe Center M. E. church. The Rev. H. W. McNay will officiate and burial will be in Monroe Center cemetery.

SUDDEN DEATH OF H. B. MARS

SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA
AFTER ILLNESS WHICH BEGAN
LESS THAN WEEK AGO.

Announcement of the death of Harry B. Mars, which occurred at his home, 1130 North Court street, Tuesday afternoon, was a great shock today to his numerous friends.

Mr. Mars' death was sudden. He went home from his work last Thursday sick from a cold. Two or three days later pneumonia developed. He sank steadily, the end coming at 4 o'clock.

Of the thirty-four years of his life Mr. Mars had spent twenty-one in Rockford. He was a member of Winnebago lodge of Odd Fellows, of John A. Logan camp, Sons of Veterans, and of Rockford lodge of Mystic Workers, and in all of these orders, and in other circles, as well, he had many warm friends. He was married June 12, 1901 to Augusta Glawe.

Mr. Mars had been employed by S. F. Steffa for fourteen years. Of recent years he had been foreman of Mr. Steffa's painters and decorators.

He leaves a widow, his father, and four sisters. The sisters are Mrs. Swick, of Chitty, Ark., where his father resides; Mrs. Chalmers, of California; Mrs. Rodenburger, of Chicago, and Mrs. H. Bennett, of Rockford.

The funeral services for Mr. Mars will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. M. Bannen will officiate and interment will be in the West Side cemetery. Winnebago Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Sons of Veterans will have charge of the services at the grave.

FUNERAL OF H. B. MARS

Large Attendance at Services Which Are Held at the Residence.

Funeral services for Harry B. Mars were held at the residence Friday afternoon. There was a large attendance, including members of the several orders to which he belonged. Rev. Hugh M. Bannen was the officiating clergyman. The hearse was escorted to the cemetery by the Sons of Veterans and Odd Fellows and at the grave the ritualistic service of the I. O. O. F. was conducted. Three volleys were fired over the grave. There were many floral offerings.

The pallbearers were James Williamson, Frank Chalmers, Fred Bailey, E. B. Fiske, Fred Fleming and J. C. Odell. The firing detail was composed of Messrs. C. H. Garrett, Roy Higginbotham, W. Jaycox, Kendrick, Ralph Heffley, E. Anthony, James Prindle and Thompson.

OBITUARY.

Augusta Glawe was born in Lynville township, Ogle county, Dec. 6, 1876. Her girlhood days were spent near Monroe Center. She came from that place to Rockford, Ill., where she was married to Harry Mars June 10, 1901. Mr. Mars passed away two years ago.

She leaves to mourn her passing her aged father and mother of Monroe Center, Iowa; six sisters, Mrs. Mary Bahls of Iowa, Mrs. Minnie Lutzow, Mrs. Christine Kreitzburg, Mrs. Martha Knott, Mrs. Edith Alcock and Mrs. Anna Hugaman, all of Ogle county, and three brothers, Frank of Cherry Valley, Carl of Kirkland and William of Monroe Center.

She was a dutiful daughter, a good sister, and her friends were numbered by the score. She was ever ready to help those in need and by her many acts of kindness she endeared herself to her friends.

She passed from this life into life eternal March 25, 1913, and was laid to rest beside her husband in the West Side cemetery.

YOUNG MOTHER DIES AT DAVIS JUNCTION

Mrs. Martha Knott Passes to Life
Beyond After Illness of Over a Year.

(Special to The Morning Star.)

DAVIS JUNCTION, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Martha Knott, wife of Otto F. Knott, died Thursday night at her home, two miles southwest of town, of tuberculosis. Mrs. Knott has been ill over a year and every thing was done that was possible to restore her health. She spent about eight months at Ottawa and tried several places, hoping the change of climate might be of benefit but to no avail.

Mrs. Knott before her marriage was Miss Martha Glawe and was born near Monroe Center thirty-two years ago, July 22, and moved to the home north of the Junction when about ten years of age and has lived in this vicinity since.

A little son, Wilbur, went before her, on July 7, 1913. One daughter, Mildred, is left with the husband to mourn her loss. She also leaves her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glawe of Monroe Center and five sisters, and three brothers, Mrs. Baird of Iowa; Mrs. Edith Alcock of Lindenwood; Mrs. Carl Lutzow of Monroe Center; Mrs. Anna Hagaman of Holcomb, and Mrs. Charles Kreitzberg of Stillman Valley. The brothers are Frank and William of New Milford, and Carl of Kirkland.

Mrs. Knott was a woman highly respected by all who knew her and was a lover of home, a devoted wife and mother and leaves many friends to mourn her loss and who extend their sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

The funeral will be held from the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. M. Bannen of Rockford will conduct the service. Interment will be made in the Big Mound cemetery.

know all men by these presents, that I Otto F. Knott, of the Township of Scott, Village of Davis Junction, County of York, and State of Illinois, being of sound mind and memory, to hereby make, publish, and declare this instrument as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by me made.

First: It is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be fully paid as soon after my death as it is practicable for my Executors hereafter named to pay the same.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Mary Jane Knott, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, which is to be first taken out of my estate, both real and personal, before division of the balance of my estate, as hereinafter set forth, giving and granting unto my Executive herein named the power to sell my personal property or real estate which I may own at the date of my death, if it is necessary that the same be sold, to pay to my wife said $1,000.00 hereinafter referred to.

Third: I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Mary Jane Knott, any and all of the oil stock or holdings which I may have in any oil companies as of the date of my death.

Fourth: I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Mary Jane Knott, and my daughter, Mildred Knott, and to their heirs, any and all of the real, personal and residue of my estate, both real estate and personally, share and share alike, in and for their sole and separate property forever, provided, however, that should either of the last two named beneficiaries predecease me, the survivor is to take my entire estate, both real and personal.

I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, Mary Jane Knott, as the Executive of this, my Last Will and Testament, and it is my will that she be not required to give bond for her faithful performance in the capacity of such Executive.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal at Rockford, Illinois, this 17th day of December, A.D. 1919.

Otto F. Knott Seal
Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Otto F. Knott as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of each of his nearest and lawful heirs, and in the presence of each other, these presents subscribed and signed as aforesaid, this 17th day of December, 1919.

Grant Dibble of Kirkland Commits Suicide At Home

Hangs Himself Because of Ill Health While Wife
Is Absent

Kirkland, Aug. 28.—Funeral services for Grant Dibble, 67, who committed suicide Wednesday afternoon by hanging at his home here, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, with the Rev. L. R. Minion officiating. Interment will be in Kingston cemetery.

Mr. Dibble, who was assessor of Kingston township for many years and janitor of the Kingston Consolidated school, had been suffering from ill health for some time and this is believed to have been the cause for his suicide.

His body was discovered dangling from the end of a rope which had been secured to a ceiling heat register by his wife, Mrs. Mamie Dibble, when she returned at about 4 o'clock from a visit to Rockford. He had locked the doors of the house and Mrs. Dibble had to crawl through a window after discovering his body. A physician who was called said that death had occurred about two hours before the body was found. A coroner's inquest will be held Tuesday.

Besides the widow, one sister, Mrs. Mattie McHainey of Cedar Bluff, Ia., and a brother, Ariel of Kirkland, survive.

KIRKLAND SCHOOL JANITOR SUICIDES

Hangs Himself From Kitchen Ceiling

(By Republic Press Service.)

Kirkland, Aug. 28.—Grant Dibble, 65, former janitor of the Kirkland consolidated school and former assessor of Franklin township, ended his life Wednesday afternoon by hanging himself with a rope suspended from a stove hole in the kitchen ceiling of his home.

His wife found his body upon her return from Rockford where she had spent the afternoon.

Dibble recently had been notified that he would not be reappointed as school janitor and this disappointment coupled with failing health is believed to have caused him to become despondent.

Mr. Dibble was born in Kingston township and he resided in this community all his life. Besides his widow he is survived by a brother, Irel, of Kirkland, and a sister, Mrs. Nettie McHoney, of Cedar Bluff, Ia.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 pm. at the M. E. church, and burial will be in Kingston cemetery. Coroner R. P. Culver of DeKalb announced that an inquest will be held next Tuesday.

GIRL MAY LOSE PART OF HAND

CLARA BAHLS HAS HAND DRAWN
INTO HOT MANGLE IN I. S. D.
LAUNDRY.

AMPUTATION IS PROBABLE

She Reached for Cloth Without Stopping Machinery and Hand Is Drawn Between Rolls and Terribly Burned.

Clara Bahls, one of the children attending the Iowa School for the Deaf, was seriously burned recently while at work in the laundry and as the result may lose a part of her right hand. While she was working at the mangle a piece of cloth she was ironing caught in the machinery and was being carried around with the roller. Although having been carefully warned of the danger many times she reached for the cloth thinking that she could pull it away easily without stopping the machinery. As a result her right hand was caught and drawn between the hot rolls. The hand was terribly burned before it could be released. Dr. Hanchett has the case and thinks it will be possible to save a part of the thumb and a part of the fore finger, but fears that the rest of the hand may have to be taken off.

The injured girl is about 12 years of age and came here from Emmetsburg, Ia. It is said that the mangle on which she was burned has been out of repair for some time and that the fact had been called to the attention of the board by the superintendent. At the time of the accident it had not been repaired.

It's 5 miles from Davis Junction to Monroe Center.

A Railroad Rate War.

There is a big rate war between the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern roads to all Montana and pacific coast points. There are also cut rates on the Southern Pacific. The price of tickets has been practically cut in two. It costs too much money to travel.

I'd like to know how much it cost and how long it took to travel from Emmetsburg, Iowa. It looks like Mary's only choice from Emmetsburg would have been The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul RR crossing at Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin or Dubuque, Iowa. About 364 miles on modern roads.

Keep in mind that your relative may have told the census taker anything. Or if no one was at home the neighbors could have answered the questions.

Searches of databases are frequently made under the assumption that our ancestors gave the correct answers, that those answers were written legibly and that the writing was transcribed correctly. Not everything told to the enumerator of the census was the truth. Keep in mind that your relative may have told the census taker anything.
